

Toddler Station

January 2015

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
				1	2	3
				New Year's Day 	Sing "Happy New Year's to you" to a friend. (Music)	Spread glue on a sheet of paper and sprinkle on confetti for a confetti collage. (Art)
4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Fill a paper cup ¼ full with rice, then tape another cup on top for a music shaker. (Music)	Find a snowy day story at the library to read to your child. (Literature)		Bring snow into your house. What happens if it stays inside too long? (Science)	Let your child toss cotton balls (snowballs) into a basket. (Coordination)	Pack containers with snow, dump out upside-down to make snow sculptures. (Construction)	Tear pieces of white paper for snowflakes and glue onto dark background. (Art)
11	12	13	14	15	16	17
	Count out small marshmallows for your hot chocolate. (Snack/Math)	Add a craft stick handle to a snowman shape for a snowman puppet. (Art)	Let your toddler sort poker chips into piles by color. (Sorting/Colors)	Look for objects in your home that are round like a circle. (Shapes)	Cut out paper circles for your child to glue onto paper for a circle collage. (Art)
18	19	20	21	22	23	24
Give your toddler a busy book to play with. (Self-Help Skills)	Martin Luther King Jr. Day 	Let your child help you make a card for someone who is sick. (Kindness)	Use leftover holiday bows to dress up your stuffed animals. (Creativity)	Take your bears for a ride in a small wagon. (Coordination)		Have a Teddy Bear picnic today. (Imagination)
25	26	27	28	29	30	31
Encourage your toddler to dance to music on the radio. (Movement)	Let your child help you stir the batter when making pancakes for breakfast. (Cooking)	Have your child place Cheerios on the dots on a piece of dotted paper. (Eye-Hand Coordination)		Discuss with your toddler things that are dark and things that are light. (Opposites)	Let your child choose (between two outfits) what he will wear today. (Making choices)	Listen to different sounds around you. What do you hear? (Listening)