				Give your toddler a paper fan to use to keep cool on a hot day. (Science)	Let your child draw with large crayons and large paper. (Large Muscle Development)	Let your toddler paint on bubble wrap then press paper on top for a bubble print. (Art)
4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Recite the rhyme "Jack and Jill" for your toddler. (Rhymes)		Take your child to a small hill and show him how to roll down. (Coordination)	Have your toddler pretend to be a fish swimming in the sea. (Imagination)	Show your child how to make his arms go up and down like waves in the ocean. (Movement)		Read a book about whales and other large creatures in the ocean. (Language / Animals)
11	12	13	14	15	16	17
Hold up the end of a blue scarf and have your child hold up the other end, make pretend waves. (Movement)	Sing the song "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean." (Music)	Let your toddler play with squirt fish toys in the bathtub. (Small Muscle Development)	Pretend your finger is a buzzing bee and land on different body parts of your toddler. (Body Awareness)		Make a bee finger puppet for your child. Glue wax paper wings to a paper finger band. (Language)	Encourage your toddler to buzz like a bumble bee. (Sounds)
18	19	20	21	22	23	24
Use old calendar pictures to make simple 4-8 piece puzzles for your child. (Problem Solving)	Let your child choose the flavor of ice cream she would like. (Making Choices)		Play a "stop and go" game with your child. Use small cars or trucks. (Opposites)	Show your toddler how to dump dirt with a toy dump truck. (Small Muscle Development)	Look for red or blue trucks as you are riding in a car or on a bus. (Colors)
25	26	27	28	29	30	31
Count trucks with your child as you are riding in a car or on a bus. (Math)	Show your toddler how to fill up the back of a toy truck with small objects. (Pretend)	Count the number of wheels that different truck pictures have. (Math)	Sing about "The Wheels on the Bus (or Truck)." (Music)	Have your toddler discuss differences in trucks found in picture books. (Language)		Teach your child the finger play "Two Little Black Birds." (Rhymes)
