

Toddler Activity Calendar

September 2019

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Give your child some hats with which to play dress-up. (Imagination)	Labor Day 	Encourage your child to pretend to do different jobs, such as; carpentry or baking. (Pretend)	Show your child how to talk into a cardboard tube for a pretend phone. (Language / Listening)	Have your child find things in your house that are noisy and things that are quiet. (Opposites)	Give your child some cheese cracker sticks to count, before eating. (Math / Snack)	Call or visit grandparents. (Social Development)
8	9	10	11	12	13	14
Grandparent's Day 	Measure your toddler's heights against a wall and mark it with a piece of tape. (Measurement)	Show your child some of her old baby clothes to compare with her current clothes. (Size)	Let your toddler jump off a small stool onto pillows or a mattress. (Coordination)		Line up chairs to make a "bus." Pretend to go on a bus ride with your child. (Imagination)	Teach your child the words and motions to the song, "The Wheels on the Bus." (Music)
15	16	17	18	19	20	21
Give your child a paper apple shape. Have him glue red 1" tissue squares all over it. (Art)	Let your toddler enjoy some apple juice for a quick snack. (Snack / Nutrition)		Plan a red day. Wear red clothes, eat red snacks, etc. (Colors)	Make an apple shaped stick puppet and have your child glue on two paper eyes. (Lang. Dev.)	Go on a walk. Have your child pick up different leaves for a leaf collection. (Science)	Give your child a pile of leaves. Sort leaves by color; red, yellow or brown. (Colors)
22	23	24	25	26	27	28
Fall Begins 	Have child spread glue on a paper leaf shape. Sprinkle with crumbled dried leaves. (Art)	Hide a ticking clock and have your toddler find it. (Listening)	Give your child a black marker and some paper to draw on. (Colors / Art)	Make a headband with black cat ears for your child to wear, pretend to be a cat. (Pretend)		Let your child paint on a large paper with black paint. When dry, cut painting into a large cat. (Art)
29	30
Encourage your toddler to crawl on the floor like a spider. (Movement)	